MISS LIVERPOOL OPENS NEW DOMINO'S PIZZA STORE

- New Hunts Cross store creates 26 jobs for local people -

Miss Liverpool has officially opened the new Domino's Pizza store in Hunts Cross. Miss Liverpool, real name Amanda Ball, attended the opening of the pizza delivery store, which has created 26 jobs for local people.

Located in the Hunts Cross Shopping Centre, the new Domino's Pizza store has provided a welcome boost for employment in the area, by taking on 26 trainee managers, trainee pizza makers, customer service representatives and delivery experts. Domino's Pizza believes in opportunities for all. The company is an Age Positive Employer Champion, which means that it has been recognised for its commitment to welcoming applicants of all ages.

The new team at Domino's Hunts Cross are now in full swing preparing and delivering freshly made pizzas to homes across the area. All Domino's pizzas are made to order from scratch using only high quality ingredients. Fresh dough is topped with vine-ripened tomato sauce and real mozzarella, then customised with tasty toppings from around the world.

Amanda Ball said: "I love tucking in to a Hawaiian pizza, so I was delighted to be asked to open the new Domino's store in my hometown. It was great to see Domino's at work – and I'm sure the local people in Hunts Cross will enjoy eating the pizzas as much as the team enjoy making them."

Paul McPadden, store manager at Domino's Hunts Cross, said: "It was a real treat to have Miss Liverpool officially open our new store. She looked good in a Domino's uniform so if she does ever decide to put down her sash and tiara, I'm sure we'd have an opening for her in the team!"

For more information, visit the new Domino's store at Unit 9A Hunts Cross Shopping Centre, Speke Hall Road, Liverpool L24 9GB or telephone 0151 486 0000.
