

Domino's Pizza

NEWS

For immediate release

May 5, 2009

EDINBURGH DOMINO'S DELIVERY DRIVER'S FIVE MINUTES OF FAME

A Domino's Pizza delivery driver from Edinburgh has swapped knocking on front doors for knocking on stage doors.

Teen pop sensations McFly were playing at the Corn Exchange last Friday night when the band's guitarist Dougie Poynter ordered, live on stage, a Domino's Pizza from the Colinton Road store.

Clad in her full Domino's uniform, Ashling Kelly (19) then delivered the band's order, an extra large Texas BBQ chicken pizza with extra anchovies with large coke and garlic bread, live on stage in front of a cheering crowd in an impressive 22 minutes.

The band asked the audience to keep quiet as the order was being made so the Domino's staff would not suspect the identity of their VIP customers. Unbeknown to the Domino's restaurant, the staff members were being timed by the band who plan to pull the same stunt at each gig on their new tour, which was launched in Wolverhampton.

Ashling, who is studying at Heriot-Watt University, was ushered into the building by stage door security staff on her arrival.

She said: "It was just another pizza delivery for me until I realised that something was a little different. It was really dark as this huge security guard walked me up these steps and the next thing I knew, I was standing on a stage in front of hundreds of people. It was amazing and definitely the most exciting delivery I've ever made!"

Domino's Pizza Press Office

Direct Line: +44 (0)1908 580660 Switchboard: +44 (0)1908 580000

Out of Office: (0)7831 299801

Email: pr@dominos.co.uk

We love to feed the Media Pizza!
Please contact us for a free Pizza.

Domino's Pizza

NEWS

Dougie made Irish-born Ashling's night when he asked her name and the crowd started cheering as she got on stage with the band's delivery. They even started chanting "Ash-ling, Ash-ling!"

-Ends-

Domino's Pizza Press Office

Direct Line: +44 (0)1908 580660 Switchboard: +44 (0)1908 580000

Out of Office: (0)7831 299801

Email: pr@dominos.co.uk

We love to feed the Media Pizza!
Please contact us for a free Pizza.