DOMINO'S PIZZA OPENS A STORE IN BANBRIDGE

- Domino's creates new jobs in Northern Ireland -

Domino's, the local pizza delivery expert, has today [Wednesday, September 21] opened a new store in Banbridge. This new store is located on Church Street and comes as a welcome boost to the area with the creation of 25-30 jobs.

Conall Humston, manager of the new store, said: "We are really pleased to open a new store in Banbridge and have a skilled team of pizza makers, customer service representatives and delivery experts all ready to serve the residents of the area with our delicious piping-hot pizza."

The new store has some great opening offers available – spend over £25 online and receive £10 off. If you come and collect you can pick up a large pizza for just £8.99.

To place an order, you can visit the new team at 23a Church Street, Banbridge, BT32 4AA, call them on 02840 660770 or order online at www.dominos.co.uk. Check out all the latest offers by joining them at Facebook/Domino's Banbridge.
