LOCAL WINNER SCOOPS A GOURMET LIFESTYLE WITH DOMINO'S

- Top notch trip to Las Vegas won by local winner -

Anthony Cox from Bearsted, has scooped a slice of a gourmet lifestyle, thanks to Domino's, the pizza delivery expert. Anthony and his wife Jacky will soon be jetting off to Las Vegas for a luxurious five star stay at the Bellagio Hotel on the famous strip with £1,000 spending money.

Domino's ran the competition to celebrate the launch of its new gourmet pizza range and sponsorship of ITV1 television event – Red or Black?. Anthony is one of seven lucky winners from across the country who played along online with the TV programme which aired last month. He correctly guessed the outcome of the Red or Black? wheel from one of the live shows and was then chosen at random from thousands of entries.

Anthony Cox, winner of Domino's gourmet lifestyle competition, said: "I am absolutely delighted to have won – I couldn't believe it when I got the call! I really enjoyed Red or Black? and am so excited about jetting off to Las Vegas, thanks to Domino's Pizza. As soon as I get there, I'm going to take a slice of my spending money and try my luck at choosing red or black again!"

Anthony will be flying to Las Vegas early next year to enjoy his prize.
