- Deputy Mayor and Deputy Mayoress welcome Domino's to Houghton-le-Spring –

Domino's Pizza in Houghton-le-Spring received a welcome visit from the Deputy Mayor, Iain Kay and Deputy Mayoress, Barbara McClennan, who visited the recently opened store on Thursday, November 24.

The team were delighted to receive the visit from the Deputy Mayor and Deputy Mayoress, who were treated to a lesson in pizza making and given a tour of the store. They really got into the swing of things and enjoyed learning how to make their own pizzas.

Mike Racz, franchisee for the new store, said: "It was lovely to meet them both. They were really enthusiastic about making pizza and meeting the team. We hope they enjoyed their time with us and look forward to seeing them again very soon."

The Deputy Mayor, Councillor Iain Kay, commented: "Both the Deputy Mayoress and I found the visit to Domino's Pizza extremely fascinating. Having never made a pizza before I was intrigued to have a go – I must say they have a lot to learn when making pizzas. I found the experience worthwhile and am pleased to welcome this new store to the town. The team were professional and polite and I think Domino's will be very popular among the local residents."

The store in Houghton-le-Spring opened its doors on Saturday, September 24 and can be found at 79 Newbottle Street, Houghton-le-Spring, DH4 4AR. To order a hot, fresh pizza call them on 0191 584 3555 or order online at www.dominos.co.uk
